

Privacy Policy

GradeBusters promises to meet internationally recognised standards for protecting privacy by fully complying with the requirements of Jersey 's Data Protection Laws.

This Website or its Internet Service Provider or Web Server may use technologies such as cookies and the use of users' IP addresses in order to deliver the requested pages, to collect statistical usage information and for the provision of services. More specifically, cookies are used by the GradeBusters's services to authenticate you when you log in or to remember your login details. Secure encryption tools may also be used for the provision of the service and to ensure that only authorised users can access the relevant areas of this site or web service.

This Privacy Policy Statement is only applicable to this site and does not extend to any other external links.

Personal Information Collection Statement

We only collect information about consumers that is required for the provision of our services or is required by Law. The information collected from you will only be used for the purpose of processing your enquiry, order or membership to GradeBusters services or for processing your transactions and managing your account efficiently and securely.

We treat the information you give us freely in our information collection pages as private and you have the right to access any information we have about you at any time to check whether it is accurate and up to date. If you wish to be given any information we hold about you, please contact us by emailing info@gradebusters.info.

Disclosure to Third Parties

Privacy-sensitive information will not be made available to a third party unless if (a) we have express permission by the individual concerned (b) for the purpose of providing our services (c) by order of any competent governmental authority. We will only share information with business partners if necessary for the provision of the services, provided that they use such information in a manner that is consistent with this Privacy Policy and subject to appropriate Data Protection legislation.
